Whole House Interior Remodel with Family Room Addition

5125 West Liberty, Ann Arbor

This first floor remodel and addition respects the character of the home and offers modern features and a fresh new layout. This older home was divided into smaller rooms that weren't working for the homeowners. Our team designed a modest addition that maximized space and allowed us to open the living room, expand the kitchen, and bring the laundry to the main floor.

At the heart of this renovation lies the new kitchen. Now open to the family room addition, the large island with quartz countertop is a focal point that anchors the space. Bright cabinets surrounding the island offer storage in style. The kitchen leads into a new family room with tall vaulted ceilings to create height while large windows wash the space with natural light. At the center is a new fireplace, perfect for those cold winter days.
